Income from alimony, child support or maintenance, if any and if applicable, does not have to be revealed in applying for credit unless you freely choose to do so and will rely upon such income to repay the credit herein applied for. Everything that you have stated in this application is correct to the best of your knowledge. The Credit Union is authorized to check your credit and employment history, obtain a credit report, and answer questions about its credit experience with you. You understand that it may be a federal crime, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, to knowingly make any false statements concerning any of the above facts as applicable under the provisions of the United States Criminal Code. You agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of EP Federal Credit Union's agreement, to be sent upon approval, and to all other applicable disclosures to be provided to you by EPFCU, and understand that they may be amended from time to time. The Federal Credit Union Act gives the Credit Union the right to impress a lien on all present and future shares and dividends in your share account to the extent of the outstanding balance of this loan. Furthermore, the Credit Union may enforce this lien on your shares and dividends by applying those funds directly to your outstanding indebtedness, without obtaining a court judgment to enforce the lien.
