How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called "Average Daily Balance (including new purchases)." See your Account Agreement for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your Account Agreement.

Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account, including your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to verify your identity.

You acknowledge that all of the terms provided by these disclosures are subject to change, at our discretion, at any time, and agree that if we accept your application, you will comply with all of the terms contained in your Securityplus Federal Credit Union Credit Card Agreement and Disclosures and Terms that we will provide to you.

Balance Transfers

We may decline balance transfer requests under certain circumstances. For example, if your account is delinquent or overlimit, we may decline to process your request. If we do, we will notify you. Your balance transfer limit, including all applicable fees, may not exceed the value of your available credit line. If the total balance transfer amount you request exceeds the value of your available credit line, you authorize us to send either full or partial payment to your creditors in the order you provide them to us.

Please review your Credit Card Agreement and Disclosures and Terms when you receive them. We will not effect any balance transfer you request if you call (410) 281-6200 and withdraw your balance transfer request within 10 days after the date the Credit Card Disclosures and Terms are mailed to you.

Please continue to make your monthly payment on any account from which you are transferring balances until your balance transfer posts to your Securityplus Federal Credit Union Credit Card account. Standard processing time varies, so your balance transfer may not take effect before your next cycle.
